Bar Jo

Tyler and JD, once rodeo legends, find themselves craving a new thrill after their rodeo days have faded. A frozen pond in small town Cochrane is now their escape. Neither can skate, pass, shoot or team rope but pond hockey is now their new challenge.

"Rodeo's balance, grit—it's hockey in a different arena," Tyler joked as he wobbled on skates. JD, with his old bull-riding bravado, declared, "We'll be legends again—this time on ice."

They have trained relentlessly, taking falls and learning the flow of 3v3 pond hockey. Locals laughed at first, but soon, their sheer determination began winning respect. Tyler and JD were proving old washed up cowboys could conquer any arena.

BGC Hockey Stars

BGC is a geotechnical engineering consultancy who has been competing in the Kimmett Cup since 2016. Each year, we try to fundraise as much as we can through employee donations, and through our company's non-profit, BGC squared, BGC matches our donations; doubling our efforts. As a company we are outdoorsy and love to give back to the community, so participating in the Kimmett Cup has been a great opportunity to connect, help out, and get outside.

Puck Junkies

"Puck Junkies Origin (A historical must-read by Ayla)

Once upon a time, a long, long time ago in a land far, far away there was a wee lad playing hockey in a backyard rink. His name - Robbie Owens. Little did we know, this lad would start and nurture the Puck Junkies storied franchise in the Kimmett Cup.

Having skated, deked (or tried to!) and shot as many pucks as one could imagine in his own backyard, Robbie would decide to take his game and venture far and wide from his little town. After a long and arduous journey, Robbie would find himself in the small town of Cochrane with a new family (Annette, Ryan, Ayla and Cody). It is here where his scouting and tutoring would begin.

Two key turns of fortune would happen for Robbie in Cochrane: "The Mann" family became his neighbors and he joined the legendary Ranchmen Oldtimers hockey team. Robbie would unknowingly begin his scouting and training for a team that was only at the edge of his imagination. It started with a family tradition of a backyard rink, where Ryan, Ayla, Cody, Alex, Chris, and Nick would learn all the fundamentals of outdoor hockey. While fun, this preparation did have its hardships: Bruised shins from the serious foul of a lifted puck; Black & Blue knees from falling and the occasional (or frequent depending on your point of view) brawl were just some of the struggles that these young prospects faced.

A whole wealth of "creative talent" was introduced to Robbie when he signed with the Ranchmen: One of a kind Christmas gifts; Inspirational beer cards and the world renowned Richard Award. All of this creativity would play a part in the future Puck Junkies.

However, Robbie seemed dissatisfied with just organized, indoor hockey to scout players for the Puck Junkies. Thus began the annual Boxing Day Barrier Lake Outdoor Classic. If ever there was a venue made for pond hockey, it would be Barrier Lake in Kananaskis: Crisp temperatures, polished ice, and nestled in the heart of the towering Rocky Mountains. To-die for conditions for any outdoor hockey enthusiast.

Finally, unbeknownst to Robbie, the day would come when all his hard work would be realized when Joe MacLellan and Jason Bannerman started the Kimmett Cup, a 3 on 3 pond hockey tourney on Mitford Pond in the dead of winter. A fitting tribute to Lindsay Kimmett who passionately did everything she could to bring the joy of hockey into the hearts and souls of friends and co-workers, many of whom had never skated before. No other hockey team in the world had so many "one-of-a-kind" name bars, an innovation started by the one and only "Monumental", #25.

The first Puck Junkies team were few in numbers but large in heart, following Annette “the Hockey Mom” team catchphrase, “Play hard, Play safe, and Have fun”. The team consisted of all the Owens’, Liz Stewart and a small, unheard of hockey family named the Shelly’s. This team would go onto win the ultimate prize of the Shottie Stick.

With competition even stronger than the first year, the Puck Junkies would take on a few new additions and repeat as Shottie stick champs. The third Kimmet Cup would begin a dry spell for the Puck Junkies, but don’t tell that to this team as they continue to “play hard, play safe, and have fun”. It would also see some roster changes with the Shelley family moving on and Blake Morris, the Mann, Brady, Kwas, and Mitchell families joining the squad. All these new additions scouted over the years on the ponds, rinks and Ranchmen events.

On to Kimmet Cup 2025 , where the Puck Junkies have been training hard in the offseason with trips to Barrier Lake, Booze Cup and other pre-tournament activities. They have their skates sharpened, helmet straps tightened, and sticks taped and are eagerly awaiting the chance to “play hard, play safe, and have fun”. A motto that Lindsay lived so passionately every time she hit the ice.

SLS Centre Frogs

Last year (2024) was SLS Centre's inaugural entrance to The Kimmett Cup and we loved, loved, loved the experience! The tournament is a fantastic opportunity for us to express our passion for sport and showcase our support of well-being within our community.

The event's fundraising has great outcomes, and we are thrilled to have two teams participating!

Over the years, The Kimmett Memorial Foundation has donated considerable amounts to the funding of initiatives at SLS Centre; including (but not limited to) The Warm Water Therapy Pool and the twin Arena addition, along with Kids Minor Hockey and Ringette Scholarships. This is our chance to "give back". We look forward to rejoining our awesome community to carry on the legacy of Lindsay Leigh Kimmett.

SLS Centre is a proud sponsor of the great cause that is The Kimmett Cup. Our players are comprised of staff members and some family members. We share a passion for hockey and are thrilled to have the opportunity to participate, shine and connect with colleagues through the love of hockey!

Sweet 16

Sweet 16, is our team name, it is the 16th Annual Kimmett Cup Memorial Pond Hockey Tournament. Further, as Dr. Joe has shared, "Lindsay was a classmate and friend. I am fundraising to continue her legacy and help make a difference in our community".

We are honoring all Kimmett Cup heroes we have played for in the past and present. We celebrate the lives of four special people close to our hearts, and those not mentioned: Lindsay Kimmett, Carter Thompson, Matthew Gensorek, and David Gensorek. We are also playing for those who need our support now; those going through health challenges, as well as their families, and those experiencing food insecurities.

Sweet 16 is comprised of Lindsay's fellow UCalgary Medical Class member, Dr. Joe MacLellan. Our team is also composed of players that include family, and friends who exhibit the spirit of Kimmett Cup! Cheer us on!

Two Pharmacy

This year, the Two Pharmacy team laces up their skates once again, bringing together a mix of returning veterans and fresh-faced rookies, all playing in honor of Lindsay and her love for the game.

Returning to the ice are team staples Alexie, Logan, Max, and Ella, who have become synonymous with Two Pharmacy's gritty, heart-filled play. Their experience and camaraderie anchor the team, providing a steady presence both on and off the ice. Joining them this year are rookies Quinn, Zoe, Sahar, and Noelle, who are ready to make their mark and bring fresh energy to the squad.

The team is led by captain Reid Kimmett, who, while often busy behind the scenes organizing this incredible event, finds time to join his team on the ice whenever he can. For Reid, the Kimmett Cup is deeply personal; a chance to honor his sister Lindsay, who loved hockey and brought joy to everyone around her. Playing in her memory is a reminder of the kindness, determination, and sense of fun that she embodied.

Every year, the Two Pharmacy team looks forward to being part of this special event. It's a time to connect with family, friends, and the community, all while playing the game Lindsay cherished so much. Whether scoring goals or cheering each other on from the bench, the team is united in their purpose: to remember Lindsay's incredible spirit and celebrate the love that keeps her legacy alive.

Here's to another amazing Kimmett Cup, "let's make Lindsay proud!"

Big Chill

This is our second year in the Kimmitt Cup. The first year was enough to hook us, so we are back. We are a family team, that started out originally just with "the gals", but as this tournament has a competitive co-ed option, we have added some "boys" to the roster.

So we are a mix of family and friends, who love being outdoors playing this great game and equally enjoy the indoor festivities following the game (which definitely hampers our performance if we have to play over two days!)

Kudos to the organization team that puts on the tournament. I know it is a lot of work so thank you! As always, most of our dazzling moves and moments of brilliance will be in our minds versus on the ice. Looking forward to being a part of this community event!

Great Clambinos

The Great Clambinos were known for their no-nonsense attitude, unbreakable work ethic, and sense of camaraderie. They may not have had the slickest moves on the ice, but they made up for it with heart, grit, and an unrelenting will to win. The ice was their new worksite, and just like in the field, they gave 110%, no matter the odds.

When it came time for the annual hockey tournament, they weren't just another team; they were a force to be reckoned with. Every match was more than a game. It was a test of how far they could push each other, how deep they could dig into their collective strength, and how much they believed in their bond.

And in the end, when the final whistle blew, win or lose, they were always proud to have played together. After all, they knew that the best part of the tournament wasn't the trophy; it was for the cause, the friendships forged and the memories made.

Back again, we've lost count of how many years we've been here, but we certainly haven't lost track of all the fun we have had over the years.

Tasked again as GM for the team, Scott Erven looked to put together a well-rounded team. Luckily each year our team has had no issue getting rounder!

Our team motto is we don't go fast, but we don't go far. Stay at home hockey is the name of the game. Larissa, Char, Sydnie and Carling provide most of the fire power, as well as most of the skill on the team, but Garret, Scott, Scott and Mac have been known to make a few good passes that are sometimes good for a second assist on the score sheet.

We look forward to getting out on the ice and sharing some laughs and good times."
